TOY SHOP HEROES—Song
Words and Music by H. WAKEFIELD SMITH

Price, 60 cents

An Instantaneous Success

The first edition of this song was quickly exhausted and it seems destined to attain great popular favor. Why? Because from the opening bars to the grand climax it tells a story, semi-humorous, romantic, tragic, tells it with a musical setting that just fits every emotion inspired by the tale and holds fast the attention of the listener. Splendidly suited for an encore song.

A Ballad of Charm and Merit

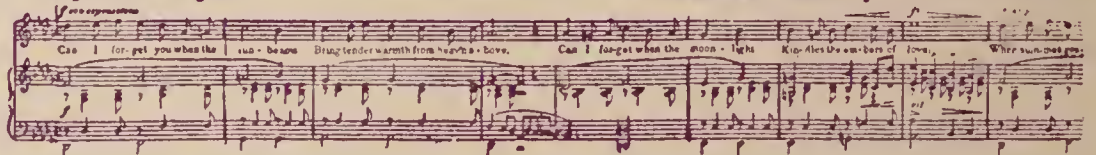

My Memory is a song with a refrain of much mododic beauty, one that will linger in your memory long after you have heard it. This ballad makes an excellent program number—tenors and high baritones will find it particularly well adapted to the range of their voices. Note the effective counter-theme of the accompaniment in the thematic shown.

EIGHT SONGS FROM GREEN TIMBER

Lyrics by Chas. O. Roos
Music by Thurlow Lieurance
Price, $1.50

A cycle of real American songs where-in poet and composer, blending their impressions, have given us songs that carry the heartbeat of the enchanted Green Timber country in the valley of the St. Croix River. Occasional snatches of native Indian melodies are introduced to preserve the atmosphere, but in the main the themes are original with Mr. Lieurance. Their titles are as follows: Wild Bird, Where Cedars Rise, The Year of Dry Leaves, The Deserted Lodge, The Whistling Mallards Fly, Where the Sad Waters Flow, Sad Moon of Falling Leaf and Antwine. Each song may be obtained separately in sheet form.
